Christian Life Academy, or any of its employees, may not enter into a confidentiality agreement regarding terminated or dismissed staff members, or staff members who resign in lieu of termination, based in whole or in part on misconduct that affects the health, safety, or welfare of a student, and may not provide the staff member with employment references or discuss the personnel's or administrators' performance with prospective employers in another educational setting, without disclosing the staff member's misconduct.

Any part of an agreement or contract that has the purpose or effect of concealing misconduct by staff members which affects the health, safety, or welfare of a student is void, is contrary to public policy, and may not be enforced.

MANDATORY REPORTING REQUIREMENTS:

Christian Life Academy seeks to express God's love of children and provide for their personal wholeness. The Academy seeks to prevent child abuse of any form to our children and youth and to minister to victims of abuse and their families. The Bible is foundational to our understanding upon which all policies, procedures, and ministries must stand.

People were bringing little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." And he took the children in his arms, placed his hands on them and blessed them. (Mark 10:13-16)

And whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me. "If anyone causes one of these little ones—those who believe in me—to stumble, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea. Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to stumble! Such things must come, but woe to the person through whom they come! (Matthew 18:5-7)

Our goal in response to these Biblical mandates is to maintain a safe, secure, and loving place where children may grow: a place where care-givers, teachers, and leaders (both paid and volunteer) minister appropriately to their needs.

Christian Life Academy desires to be a safe place for all children and adults who attend any activity. Individuals they know and trust sometimes victimize children. The ministry is not immune to such abuse, either by its members or by those in leadership positions. Incidents of child abuse or neglect cut across racial, social, economic and religious boundaries. Although no organization or individual can assure complete protection, this section along with Christian Life Academy Child Abuse Prevention Policies and Procedures reflect its commitment to help protect children from harm.

Christian Life Academy will not tolerate child abuse or neglect. Staff cooperation in this commitment not only reflects a concern about children's safety in this society, but also a willingness to take steps toward halting child abuse and its detrimental effects.

For the safety and protection of our children and workers, all people who participate in Christian Life Academy-sponsored activities with children are required to comply with the guidelines provided in this policy in conjunction with our Child Abuse Prevention Policy.

If Christian Life Academy receives an allegation of child abuse, it will respond with the utmost concern to the victim, parent, or other party making such an allegation. The accused will be treated with dignity and support. Without clear and convincing evidence to the contrary, Christian Life Academy's personnel will assume that such complaints are made in good faith. Persons making such complaints should have no doubt that Christian Life Academy takes them seriously and will take appropriate action.

When it becomes necessary to report suspected child abuse or neglect, the protection of children must be the most important concern. It is the legal responsibility of any person with responsibility for the care of children to report all cases of child abuse they observe, and further, to report visible signs of alleged abuse. Failure to report could lead to liability, both civilly and criminally, on the part of Christian Life Academy, the observer, or both.

Christian Life Academy has determined that it is the responsibility of the program staff to report all cases of suspected child abuse to the proper legal authorities. While the confidentiality of the pastor/parishioner relationship is very important, reporting reasonable suspicion of child abuse has the potential for helping individuals receive help for a previous problem and may prevent further harm to a child, that person, or others.

What is reasonable suspicion? Reasonable suspicion means that there is credible evidence or a discrepant or inconsistent history in explaining a child's suspected abuse.

A report based on reasonable suspicion does not require proof that abuse or neglect has actually occurred or that the reporter witnessed the incident in question. Reporting is not a determination that child abuse or neglect has actually occurred; rather, it is a request for an assessment of the condition of a child.

Because we believe children are our most important concern, Christian Life Academy has adopted the following guidelines for reporting:

- a) Treat each allegation of child abuse seriously.
- b) Attempt to assure the safety and protection of persons who have been harmed.
- c) Pray for Christian Life Academy and all persons affected by the allegation.
- d) Immediately begin documenting all procedures observed in handling the allegation.
- e) Immediately notify the school administrator, Candace Manning. The school administrator will, along with the reporting staff member, immediately report allegations to the Department of Children and Family Services.
- f) Immediately notify the parents if it is not known that they have previous knowledge of the allegations, and allegations are not currently against them.
- g) Immediately notify Christian Life Academy's insurance company. As appropriate, the school administrator shall immediately notify Christian Life Academy's insurance carrier of the possibility of a claim. If the abuse allegation does not implicate a Christian Life Academy staff member or Christian Life Academy volunteer, this step may be omitted.

- h) If the accused has assigned duties within the life of Christian Life Academy, that person must be immediately relieved of his duties until the investigation is concluded.
- i) The pastor/school authorities should extend whatever care and resources necessary. In providing care to the principals (alleged victim and the accused) and their families, the pastor, ministry leader, and/or school authorities, should under no circumstances be drawn into a discussion of the truth or falsity of the allegation which could contaminate an official investigation. Do not assign blame or take any steps that involve establishing or negating the allegation.
- j) It is appropriate to show care and comfort for the alleged victim. This should be the pastoral objective from the moment the allegation is received or otherwise made known.
- k) Observe confidentiality for both the alleged victim and the accused until advised to the contrary by the pastor.
- l) Do not confront the accused until the safety of the child or student is secured.
- m) Do not prejudge the situation, but take the allegations seriously and reach out to the alleged victim and his or her family. Showing care and support help to prevent further hurt. Extend whatever pastoral resources are needed. Remember that the care and safety of the alleged victim is the first priority. In some situations, ministries and schools have responded in a negative or non-supportive manner to the alleged victim. This conduct can increase the anger and pain of the alleged victim and his or her family. Further reconciliation can then be more difficult and the possibility of damaging litigation increases.
- n) Treat the accused with dignity and support.
- o) If the media or other parties contact a ministry official or school authorities about a pending allegation of child abuse, they should be referred to the pastor or principal. Only the ministry leader, school authorities, or their designees should make comments about the allegations, using a prepared public statement to answer the press and to convey news to the congregation, staff members, and school personnel. The prepared statement shall be made only after consultation with Christian Life Academy's attorney and will include the steps Christian Life Academy has taken to protect children, such as the development and implementation of this manual, and the care and concern Christian Life Academy has for all parties involved. The privacy and confidentiality of all involved shall continue to be of primary concern.
